KNOW WHAT IT IS

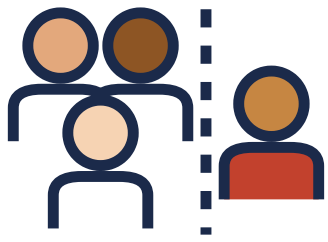

What is cyberbullying?

Cyberbullying is bullying on phones, games, apps and websites. It can follow you home, so it can feel hard to escape.

Mean messages

Nasty texts, comments or chats sent to hurt someone.

Leaving out

Keeping someone out of a group chat or game on purpose.

Sharing

Posting a photo or video of someone to upset them.

Pretending

Making a fake account or using someone's name.

Online or offline, bullying is never OK.
