DRAMA

Drama techniques

Freeze frame	A still picture made by a group to show one moment, like a photograph.
Role play	Acting as a character in a made-up situation.
Hot-seating	Answering questions in role as a character while the group asks them.
Thought-tracking	Saying aloud what a character is thinking at a frozen moment.
Mime	Telling a story with actions and expressions, but no words.
Narration	A voice that tells the audience what is happening in the story.
