PREVENTION

Common causes of fires at work

Most fires can be prevented. Knowing the usual causes helps everyone spot problems early.

Electrical faults

Damaged cables, overloaded sockets and faulty equipment.

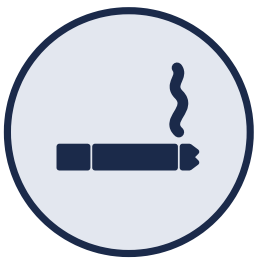

Heaters

Placed too close to paper, curtains or furniture.

Cooking

Appliances and kitchen equipment left unattended.

Smoking materials

Cigarettes and matches not put out properly.