LOOK AFTER YOUR MIND

Small habits for a steadier mind

Little things, done often, can make ordinary days feel easier to handle.

Talk

Share how you feel with someone you trust.

Move

A walk or a stretch counts. Pick what you enjoy.

Rest

Wind down at a regular time and give yourself a break.

Get outside

Fresh air and daylight, even for a few minutes.

Enjoy something

Make time for a hobby, a song or a good book.

Take breaks

Step away from your desk or screen during the day.
